JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, by and through her counsel, brings this suit because she has been the victim of sexual harassment, sexual discrimination, the creation and perpetuation of a hostile work environment, negligent supervision, and assault and battery in violation of her civil rights, federal laws, and state laws.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Because this case involves federal questions and violations of Plaintiff's civil rights, jurisdiction in this Court is asserted under the provisions of 28 U.S.C.

2. This action arises under Title VII of the provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e et seq., the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act, 43 P.S. §§ 951-963, 42 U.S.C. §1983, and the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for intentional infliction of emotional distress, negligent infliction of emotional distress, and negligent retention and supervision. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the state claims asserted herein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 1367.
3. Jurisdiction in this Honorable Court is appropriate because Plaintiff has exhausted her administrative remedies. Specifically, on March 29, 2011, Plaintiff filed a charge regarding Defendants' conduct with the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the "EEOC") and the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission ("PHRC"). A true and correct copy of the Plaintiff's EEOC Charge is attached as Exhibit "A".
4. Plaintiff was subsequently issued a Notice of Right to Sue, which the EEOC mailed on July 29, 2011. A true and correct copy of the Notice of Right to Sue is attached as Exhibit "B".
5. Venue is appropriately laid in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391(b) in that the actions complained of took place in Philadelphia, which is within the bounds of the Eastern District, and Defendants carry on business within the Eastern District.

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff, Victoria Graudins (hereinafter referred to as “Plaintiff”), is an adult female individual residing at 1412 Napfle Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.
7. In May 2010, and at all times material hereto, Plaintiff began working as an employee of Retro Fitness, working at the facility located at 224 Welsh Road, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.
8. Specifically, Plaintiff worked for the Defendant Retro Fitness, LLC t/a Retro Fitness in the childcare and protein shake/juice bar departments.
9. Plaintiff held that position until October 2010, when she was unlawfully terminated by Defendant Retro Fitness, LLC t/a Retro Fitness.
10. Defendant Retro Fitness, LLC t/a Retro Fitness (hereinafter referred to as “Defendant Retro Fitness”), is a limited liability company registered in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
11. Defendant Retro Fitness owns, operates, manages, directs and controls the facility located at 224 Welsh Road, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania (“Facility”).
12. The Facility is a “modern gym”, i.e. a fitness center.
13. Defendant Daniel Kraft is an adult male individual who at all times material hereto was the owner, franchisee, and manager of Defendant Retro Fitness with a business address at the Facility.
14. Defendant Daniel Carr is an adult male individual who at all times material hereto was an employee of Defendant Retro Fitness in the capacity of the manager of the Facility.

15. Defendant Paul Carr is an adult male individual who at all times material hereto was an employee of Defendant Retro Fitness in the capacity of a salesman.
16. Defendants Daniel Carr and Paul Carr are brothers.
17. Defendant Daniel Carr was Defendant Paul Carr's supervisor.
18. Defendant Jim Kenagie is an adult male individual who at all times material hereto was an employee of Retro Fitness in the capacity of a salesman.
19. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants Kraft and Daniel Carr were Plaintiff's direct supervisors.

FACTS

20. On or about May 2010, through the time of her unlawful termination in October 2010, Plaintiff was harassed, assaulted, and subjected to a hostile work environment at the Facility because she is a female.
21. The sexual harassment Plaintiff endured at the Facility was pervasive and occurred on a daily basis. Specifically, Plaintiff was subjected to sexual innuendos and propositions, sexually explicit discussions, pornographic images, nudity, and unwelcome touching, grabbing, and kissing.
22. The sexual harassment Plaintiff endured affected her working environment and made it hostile, uncomfortable, and extremely stressful.
23. Management knew about and ratified the foregoing sexual harassment, which was done openly, in front of management personnel, and without redirection, discipline, or discouragement.
24. Although this behavior was known to the management, nothing was done to stop the harassment.

25. Defendants Kraft and Daniel Carr knew about, and were present when the foregoing acts took place on a daily basis and yet they did nothing to intervene, discipline, reprimand, or redirect Defendant Kenagie.
26. Defendant Daniel Carr, the manager of the Facility, told Plaintiff that there was “no such thing as sexual harassment in a gym.”
27. Defendant Daniel Carr, the manager of the Facility, told Plaintiff she had to wear clothes that showed her figure.
28. On or about June 18, 2010, as discussed in detail below, Plaintiff was sexually assaulted by Defendant Paul Carr at the workplace during work hours.
29. Plaintiff was working at the Facility when Defendant Paul Carr asked her to come and help him bring drinks from the storage room to the front.
30. Plaintiff entered the storage room and walked toward the back, and when she turned around Defendant Paul Carr had removed his pants, boxers, shoes, and socks. He was completely naked from the waist down.
31. Plaintiff immediately turned around and told him to pull his pants up. Despite this, Defendant Paul Carr then approached Plaintiff from behind and rubbed his genitals against the lower back of Plaintiff.
32. Defendant Paul Carr was laughing and telling Plaintiff to “look how big” he was.
33. Plaintiff then pushed away from Defendant Paul Carr and attempted to leave the storage room; however, he prevented her from leaving, turned off the light, kissed Plaintiff’s neck, grabbed her vagina through her dress with one hand while using the other hand to try and go down her dress to grab her chest.

34. Plaintiff told Defendant Paul Carr to stop and managed to physically push Defendant Paul Carr off of her a second time at which point he laid on the floor of the storage room, naked from the waist down, and told her to stand overtop of his face.
35. Plaintiff then fled the room, reported the incident to her boyfriend via text, and eventually, the police arrived.
36. At not time did Plaintiff give Defendant Paul Carr permission to touch her, or encourage his actions in any way.
37. Plaintiff pressed charges against Defendant Paul Carr for the assault on June 18, 2010.
38. On January 13, 2011, following a bench trial, Defendant Paul Carr was convicted of unlawful restraint, indecent assault, indecent exposure, simple assault, recklessly endangering another person, and false imprisonment. A true and correct copy of the criminal docket is attached as Exhibit "C".
39. Defendant Paul Carr was sentenced to four years probation supervised by the sex offender unit of the probation department, and a stay away order remained in effect as to Plaintiff. Exhibit C; A true and correct copy of the Stay Away Order is attached as Exhibit "D".
40. On or about October 2010, Plaintiff was unlawfully terminated by Defendant in retaliation for pressing charges against Defendant Paul Carr and complaining about the sexual harassment to which she was subjected.

COUNT I – Sexual Discrimination and Harassment under Title VII
Plaintiff v. All Defendants

41. The allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs are incorporated as though fully set forth herein.
